

EVENING BULLETIN.

Published Every Day, except Sunday, at 210 King street, Honolulu, H. I., by the

BULLETIN PUBLISHING COMPANY.

W. R. FARRINGTON, Editor
SAMUEL LOGAN, City Editor

SATURDAY, AUG. 5, 1899.

News of Wyoming capital coming to Hawaii for investment is received as tidings of comfort and joy.

What does this refusal to allow Japanese laborers to leave Japan mean? War on Hawaii plantations or war with Russia?

Architect Traphagen is one who should not be forgotten when figuring up the credit side of the Waialua Hotel proposition.

Dr Bishop says he doesn't read the BULLETIN's discussion of the constitutional question. Good! Now, is everybody serene, or serene, everybody?

The United States is a nation of agriculturalists. Gen. Alger has left the arduous duties of the War Department to become a farmer in Pingree's senatorial potato patch.

Attorney General Cooper can stand up and fight his open enemies, and "lick or get licked." His greatest danger seems to be from the knives of those supposed to be his friends.

The mystery of the hour is what under the sun the Tramways Company wants double tracks for. As if Honolulu didn't already have a surfeit of double cinched street railway antiquity.

Soldiers on the transports are not the only ones who object to the delay in receiving government pay before reaching Honolulu. It is just well and perhaps better for Honolulu merchants to gain by soldier trade rather than Spanish and Filipinos in Manila.

B. F. Dillingham comes pretty close to being "the whole thing" when it comes to the promotion of new enterprises. If there is any criticism to be made against the Waialua hotel it will take the double-dyed kicker, who hates himself and everything on earth, to find it.

The Organ intimates that local Republicans should be ashamed of themselves for objecting to the Constitutional decision of the Supreme Court, because the Court decision tallies with remarks made by Republican politician in Washington. It was supposed the decision was based on the highest justice and the law rather than outside political opinion.

The Vancouver News-Advertiser is getting worried over the condition of affairs in the United States especially as relates to the Filipino war. It says editorially: "It is also averred by the correspondents—several of whom stand in high repute for accuracy and credibility, and are representative of the best of their profession—that the United States troops engaged are almost unanimously opposed to a continuance of the struggle and dislike the war exceedingly, the volunteer section of the campaigners having shortly before their general disbandment been on the verge of mutiny. Last, not least, it is claimed that General Otis refuses to disclose details as to the number of men under hospital treatment—the roll being doubtless ominously long." With all due respect to Canadian cousins this sounds much like Spanish editorials previous to the war. The horrors of the Filipino war are bad enough but the Yankies are still ready to fight and won't stop till the last armed foe expires. The News-Advertiser has been reading the literature of the United Order of Dodofunks commonly known as anti-expansionists.

MAGGIE MOORE COMING.

Miss Maggie Moore and H. E. Roberts will appear in Honolulu two weeks from tonight. "Struck Oil" is the opening performance to be given here and, it might be mentioned in passing that this piece is the one that made this clever American lady famous in every city in the world. It was first introduced in San Francisco where Miss Moore and her husband, J. C. Williams, of the "Firm," made such a great success that they were engaged to appear in Australia. In Australia "Struck Oil" has been probably revived more than any other piece and is always sure of a good run.

Miss Maggie Moore will appear in her original character, Lizzie Stofel, introducing all the original songs and dances. Mr. Roberts will play John Stofel.

The original farce "The Chinese Question" will form an after piece to "Struck Oil," Maggie Moore and Mr. Roberts appearing as the two Chinese servants. This after piece will tend to show the remarkable versatility of these two artists.

The season sale will be opened sometime next week, the exact time to be advertised in due season. The company will appear every alternate night, introducing a new play each time.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

A. S. Allen, General Secretary of the Y. M. C. A. at Seattle, Wash., has written to Secretary Coleman of the Honolulu Y. M. C. A. to the effect that Joseph Malins, Right Worthy Grand Templar of the Independent Order of Good Templars, on a tour around the world in the interests of the organization of which he is Supreme Head leaves San Francisco for the Colonies via Honolulu in the Moana, August 9. Mr. Malins is the leading temperance reformer of Europe. While his greatest efforts have been devoted to the building up of Good Templary he has been and still takes part in all the great temperance movements of Great Britain and the continent.

Secretary Coleman states that the Y. M. C. A. will arrange for Mr. Malins to speak in the Association hall if the Moana is here a sufficient length of time in the evening of the day of her arrival. There will be a meeting of the Board of Directors, Monday evening. There will be a meeting of the Educational Committee early next week to arrange for next year's schedule. The fall term will begin in September.

HAWAIIAN RIFLE ASSOCIATION.

The Hawaiian Rifle Association's semi-annual shoot takes place Saturday, August 12th at the Kakaako butts, commencing at 9 a. m. The first prize is the "Rothwell Cup," a magnificent silver goblet presented by Mr. J. G. Rothwell, which becomes the property of the marksmen who succeeds in winning it three times.

The other prizes consist of gold and silver medals, trophies and cash. An excellent day's sport may be relied on as the awards are of a value and the occasion sufficiently interesting to bring together all the crack shots at present on the Islands. Entries are to be left with Mr. H. A. Giles at E. O. Hall & Son's not later than the day previous to the contest.

Edwin Farmer, will speak at the Men's meeting in the Y. M. C. A. Sunday afternoon. Subject: "The Overcoming Life."

INDEPENDENT NOTES.

Judge: "Have you anything to say why sentence of death should not be passed upon you?" Prisoner (haughtily): "If I have anything to say, I'll say it in my autobiography. If you want to embezzle money, get a cashiership in a bank; if you want to make money, get a job in a mint; if you want to find money, go to the Klondyke; but if you want to save money, call upon the P. C. & M. Co., on Fort street, and buy a high-grade Sterling bicycle."

Tom: "Know Wilson?" Jack: "Yes." Tom: "Very much?" Jack: "Fifty dollars!" Save fifty per cent and have your electroplating done at the P. C. & M. Co.'s on Fort street.

Soaker: "It was so cold in my room this morning, I could see my breath." Miss Cynica: "Mercy! what a horrible sight!"

Baseball, golf and tennis outfits, a complete line of which you will find at the P. C. & M. Co.'s.

A little girl, aged nine, called her father to her bedside the other evening. "Papa," said the little diplomat, "I want to ask your advice." "Well, my little dear, what is it about?" "What do you think it would be best to give me on my birthday?" Had she asked the P. C. & M. Co. for advice, they would have said, a high-grade Sterling bicycle.

She: "Was it a mercenary marriage?" He: "Yes; they were both too poor to stay engaged any longer."

The P. C. & M. Co., on Fort street, will make your old bicycle look like new for $6.00.
